Directions:

Preheat oven to 450°F. Loosen skin from chicken with your fingers; slide 2 lemon slices, 2 sage leaves, 1 thyme sprig and 1 rosemary sprig under skin of each breast. Smooth skin to close, ensuring the skin covers meat; season with salt and pepper.

Place chicken in large baking dish; brush top of each breast with olive oil. Pour lemon juice over top; add garlic and 1 cup chicken stock to pan. Roast, basting twice with pan juices, for 20 minutes or until instant-read thermometer inserted in thickest part reads 160°.

Transfer chicken to serving platter. Place pan on stovetop; mash garlic with spoon. Stir in remaining stock; bring to boil and cook until reduced to glaze-like consistency.

Presenting with boundless enthusiasm, the incredible talent behind "bunga dan bintang" - Kirin, an artist whose vibrant creations will captivate your senses!

Hey there! At The Food Purveyor, we always think sharing hidden local treasures with our customers is the best surprise. Finding little-known gems that deserve more attention is what it's all about.

As we were looking for our next project to highlight, we came across an artist named Kirin aka @bungadanbintang. We were checking out artists from a recent illustration fair and find Kirin's style inspired us for Raya theme bag.

Here's Kirin sharing her story about what inspired this particular drawing as collaboration with us for Raya limited edition bag design.

Inspired by the beauty of nature and the festive spirit of Raya, this artwork blends vibrant floral elements with iconic Malaysian traditional cakes and cookies. It features delicacies like Kuih Bahulu, Kuih Bangkit, and Kirin's favorite, Kuih Ros, creating a harmonious fusion of culture and festivity.

About the Artist; bunga dan bintang

Kirin Sharom is a self-taught illustrator from Seremban, Negeri Sembilan, who's always had a deep fascination with plants and animals. Her passion for illustration started at a young age, but her digital illustration journey didn't begin until later during her architecture postgraduate studies in Indonesia. That's where she met her favorite illustrator and joined one of his digital illustration workshops.

From that point on, Kirin was hooked on illustrating. In 2019, she started Bunga dan Bintang Studio as a platform to explore her illustration and design path. Kirin's naive style draws heavy inspiration from her love of nature, soft color palettes, and delicate lines and patterns.

Aside from illustration projects, Kirin also has her own merchandise brand called Bunga dan Bintang, where she gives people the chance to wear her artwork. Her impressive client list includes UNIQLO, H&M, The Olive Tree, Bayu Somerset, Samsung, Celcom, Poplook, Nestle, and many more.
